TRUSTS AND ESTATES

- No attempt is made here to describe the tax rules applicable to special kinds of irrevocable trusts (such as charitable trusts, QSFs, ESBTs, QSSTs, bankruptcy estates, legal life estates, qualified plan trusts, and so on).
- To the extent that any portion of an irrevocable trust is treated as a grantor trust under IRC 671, the grantor reports the income, deductions, and credits attributable to that portion as though the grantor owned that portion.

TAX YEARS BEGINNING IN 2016

| Taxable Income  Bracket Amount | Tax on  Bracket Amount | Tax Rate on Excess  Over Bracket Amount |
| ---: | ---: | :---: |
| Less than 2,550 | $-0-$ | $15.0 \%$ |

| 9,050 | $2,100.50$ | $33.0 \%$ |
| 12,400 | $3,206.00$ | $39.6 \%$ |

"Taxable income" means:

1. Gross income as defined in IRC 61,
2. Less administration expense, charitable, estate tax [IRC 691(c)], interest, tax, and other deductions to the extent allowable to the trust or estate involvedhowever, except for costs "which would not have been incurred if the property were not held in such trust or estate", certain deductions are allowed only to the extent that, in the aggregate, they exceed $2 \%$ of adjusted gross income-IRC 67(a) and (e),
3. Less distribution deduction under IRC 651 or 661 , and
4. Less a personal exemption under IRC 642(b) of:
$$ 600$ for an estate,
$$ 300$ for a trust that is required to distribute all of its income currently, or $$ 100$ for all other trusts.
A. Quarterly estimated tax payments are required for all trust taxable years, and for all estate taxable years ending after the 2nd anniversary of death. For this purpose, a trust:
5. All of which was treated as owned by a decedent and
6. To which the residue of the decedent's estate will pass under his will (or, if there is no will, which is the trust primarily responsible for paying debts, taxes, and expenses) is treated like an estate [IRC 6654(I)].
B. Trust tax years, except for wholly charitable trusts, must close on December 31 (IRC 645).
C. The " 65 day" and "separate share" rules under IRC 663 (b) and (c) apply to both "complex" trusts under IRC 661 and 662 and estates.
D. Losses on transactions between an estate and its beneficiaries or trusts and their beneficiaries are disallowed but losses that result from an estate's

E. Certain revocable trusts treated as part of an estate for income tax purposes,
7. If a trustee of a decedent's revocable trust and the decedent's executor, if any, irrevocably elect such treatment on a statement attached to the estate's timely filed (including extensions) first year income tax return, and
8. If the decedent's revocable trust was a 'qualified revocable trust"-that is, it was treated as owned by the decedent under IRC 676 by reason of the decedent's power to revoke such trust [without regard to IRC 672(e)], then such trust will be taxed as part of the estate (subject to estate, rather than trust, income tax rules) for tax years of the estate ending before the "applicable date"-which is:
a. The second anniversary of the decedent's death or
b. If an estate tax return is required to be filed, the date which is the 6-month anniversary of the final determination of estate tax. A qualified revocable trust can be a portion of a revocable trust (for example, one spouse's portion of a married couple's joint revocable trust).

CAPITAL GAINS RATES AND RULES FOR INDIVIDUALS

A. Maximum capital gains rates-assets held for more than one year are taxed at long term capital gains rates. Short-term gains (on assets held one year or less) are included in ordinary income. Noncorporate taxpayers pay tax on net capital gain at a tax rate of (a) $20 \%$ if the gain would be taxed at the $39.6 \%$ rate if it were ordinary income; (b) $15 \%$ if the gain would be taxed at the $25 \%, 28 \%$, $33 \%$, or $35 \%$ rate if it were ordinary income; and (c) $0 \%$ if the gain would be taxed at a $10 \%$ or $15 \%$ rate if it were ordinary income. Special rates apply to capital gain on unrecaptured section 1250 gain (a maximum rate of $25 \%$ ) and capital gain on collectibles (a maximum rate of $28 \%$ ). The benefit of these maximum rate provisions does not apply to the extent net capital gain is elected to be included in investment income for purposes of computing deductible investment interest expense under IRC 163(d).
In addition, the 3.8\% tax net investment income includes net gain included in gross income from the disposition of property other than certain property held in a trade or business. In the case of an individual, the 3.8\% tax is imposed on the lesser of net investment income or the excess of modified adjusted gross income over the threshold amount. The threshold amount is $$ 250,000$ in the case of a joint return or surviving spouse, $$ 125,000$ in the case of a married individual filing a separate return, and $$ 200,000$ in any other case.
B. Net capital losses-are deductible against ordinary income up to $$ 3,000$ ( $$ 1,500$ for married filing separately) per year [IRC 1211(b)]. For carryover purposes, under IRC 1212(b)(2), such capital loss ("CL") deduction "uses up" net short-term capital losses first, and is the lesser of:

1. Such CL deduction [that is, such $$ 3,000$ (or $$ 1,500$ ) amount or the lesser amount of net CL] or
2. Taxable income after adding back (a) said CL deduction and (b) personal exemptions (with any allowable deduction over gross income for such year taken into account as negative taxable income).
The remaining current year net STCL (the excess of STCL over LTCG) and net LTCL (the excess of LTCL over STCG) are carried over to future years (but not beyond death-see Rev Rul 74-175).
C. Dividend income-Dividends are taxed at the same rates as ordinary income, except for qualified dividends which are taxed at capital gains rates. [IRC 1(h) (11)].

| $18,333,333$ | $6,416,667$ | $35 \%$ |

1. Corporate net capital gains (whether short-term or long-term) are taxable income taxed at the same rates as corporate ordinary income, with a maximum rate of $35 \%$.
2. Excess corporate capital losses are subject to a 3-year carryback and 5-year carryforward (as short-term capital loss) but may be used only to reduce corporate capital gains [IRC 1212(a)].
3. Generally, net operating losses are subject to 2 -year carryback and 20 -year carryforward (the 2-year carryback may be waived for any taxable year of loss) [IRC 172(b)]. A flat $35 \%$ tax rate applies to the taxable income of a "qualified personal service corporation" [IRC 11(b)(2)]-which is a corporation (i) substantially all of the activities of which are performing services in the fields of health, law, engineering, architecture, accounting, actuarial science, performing arts, or consulting, and (ii) substantially all of the stock of which is directly or indirectly owned by employees performing (or retirees who performed) service for it (and their estates) [IRC 448(d)(2)].

Personal holding company penalty tax-If a corporation is a "personal holding company", it must pay a penalty tax of $20 \%$ on its "undistributed personal holding company income" less any "deficiency dividend" under IRC 547 [IRC 541].

Corporate alternative minimum tax (AMT) - the AMT does not apply (i) to S corporations nor (ii) to "small corporations exempt from the AMT". A corporation is treated as "small" if (a) such year is the first year of the corporation's existence or (b) for the first 3 taxable years ending before such year the corporation's average annual gross receipts do not exceed $$ 5 \mathrm{M}$ and if, for all subsequent 3 taxable year periods ending before such year, its average annual gross receipts do not exceed $$ 7.5 \mathrm{M}$ [IRC 55(e)]. When it applies, the $20 \%$ corporate AMT is computed in the same manner as the individual AMT with certain adjustments. The corporate AMT exemption is $$ 40,000$ reduced by $25 \%$ of AMT income over $$ 150,000$. Note that the corporate AMT is allowed as a credit against the regular tax in future years, and (vii) no maximum capital gain tax rates apply.

b. An employee pays:
(1) $6.20 \%$ Social Security tax on the first $$ 127,200$ of wages (maximum tax is $$ 7,886.40$ [ $6.20 \%$ of $$ 127,200]$ ), plus
(2) $1.45 \%$ Medicare tax on the first $$ 200,000$ of wages ( $$ 250,000$ for joint returns; $$ 125,000$ for married taxpayers filing a separate return), plus
(3) $2.35 \%$ Medicare tax (regular 1.45\% Medicare tax $+0.9 \%$ additional Medicare tax) on all wages in excess of $200,000 ($250,000 for joint returns; $$ 125,000$ for married taxpayers filing a separate return).

Maximum allowable retirement "earnings"-
a. If under full retirement age $$ 1$ is deducted from benefits for every $$ 2$ earned over earnings limit- $$ 16,920$ in 2017.
b. For persons born between $1 / 2 / 1943$ and $1 / 1 / 1955$, full retirement age is 66 years.
c. In the year in which full retirement age is reached, $$ 1$ in benefits is deducted for every $$ 3$ earned above $$ 44,880$ but only earnings before the month in which full retirement age is reached are counted.
d. Beginning with the month of the birthday in which full retirement age is attained, all earnings are ignored.

SOCIAL SECURITY DELAYED RETIREMENT CREDITS

Social Security benefits are increased if retirement is delayed beyond full retirement age. Delayed retirement credits max out at age 70. If retirement is delayed Medicare is still available at age 65.

FEDERAL INCOME TAXATION OF SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS

Determining if Subject to Taxation: Social Security payments, including disability and survivor benefits, are partially subject to taxation if modified adjusted gross income "MAGI," plus one-half of such benefits, exceed the "Base Amount" of $$ 32,000$ (if married filing jointly), $25,000 (for most other individuals), and zero (for married individuals filing separately but not living apart for the entire year). "MAGI" is AGI for regular tax purposes, with a number of possible adjustments, plus exempt interest [IRC 86].

If Taxable, Amount of Benefits Subject to Taxation: If subject to taxation, the amount of such benefits which are taxable will generally be the lesser of: (A) $50 \%$ of such Social Security payments, or (B) One-half of the amount by which "MAGI" exceeds the "Base Amount." However, if "MAGI" and one-half of such benefits exceed the "Adjusted Base Amount" of $44,000 (if married filing jointly), $34,000 (for most other individuals) or Zero (for married individuals filing separately but not living apart for the entire year), then a complex formula can subject up to $85 \%$ of such Social Security payments to taxation [IRC 86].

* The unified credit is reduced by $20 \%$ of the prior law's lifetime $$ 30,000$ specific gift tax exemption used in the calculation of taxable gifts made after September 8, 1976 and before 1977 [IRC 2010(b)].
The applicable exclusion amount is indexed for inflation for years after 2011.
 The "applicable exclusion amount" is the taxable amount that would produce each year's credit amount shown above if that taxable amount were subject to tax computed on the unified transfer tax rate table [see IRC 2010(c)].
 The applicable exclusion amount for the surviving spouse of a deceased spouse dying after 12/31/2010 includes the "deceased spousal unused exclusion amount ("DSUEA").
* Beginning in 2011, the applicable exclusion amount is increased by DSUEA

SPECIAL ESTATE REDUCTION LIMITS

Special Use Valuation — Maximum reduction is $$ 1,120,000$ in 2017, unchanged from 2016. Amount is adjusted for inflation annually [IRC 2032A].

Qualified Conservation Easement - Maximum exclusion is $500,000 [IRC 2031(c)].

ACTUARIAL TABLES EXAMPLES

These tables incorporate the IRS' updated mortality assumptions that became effective on May 1, 2009. IRC 7520 generally requires use of an interest rate equal to $120 \%$ of the applicable federal mid-term rate (rounded to the nearest $2 / 10$ ths of $1 \%$. However, if a charitable contribution is allowable for any part of the assets transferred, the taxpayer may elect to use the 7520 rate for the month in which the valuation date occurs or for either of the 2 months preceding that month.

IRS Mortality Table 2000CM

IRS mortality assumptions under Code section 7520 are based on Mortality Table 2000CM which shows on a unisex basis how many lives are living (IX) at each age between birth (age 0) and age 109. To calculate the probability of survival from one age to another age divide the Ix value for the older age by the Ix value for the younger age:

GENERATION-SKIPPING TRANSFER TAX RULES

The term "generation-skipping transfer" (GST) means a taxable distribution, taxable termination, or direct skip, all as defined in IRC 2612.

EFFECTIVE DATES

The GST tax applies to any GST made after 10/22/86, the date of enactment [TRA '86 §1433(b) et seq]. However-

1. Pre-enactment period-transfers made after 09/25/85 and before 10/23/86 are to be treated as though made on 10/23/86.
2. Grandfathered trusts-any trust which was "irrevocable" on 09/25/85 (other than a general power of appointment or "estate" type marital trust) is "grandfathered"-that is, the GST tax applies to it only to the extent that a taxable distribution or taxable termination involves property added (or deemed added) to the trust after 09/25/85.
3. Incompetent persons-any transfer of assets included in the gross estate of a decedent who was mentally incompetent on 10/22/86 and did not regain competence before death is exempt (except assets transferred to the incompetent person after 08/03/90 or from a post-10/21/88 QTIP trust).

RATES, EXEMPTIONS, AND DEFINITIONS

A. The GST tax rate is the maximum federal estate tax rate, for example, $46 \%$ in 2006, 45\% in 2007 through 2009 and $0 \%$ in 2010, $35 \%$ in 2011 and 2012 and $40 \%$ after 2012. To reflect the extent to which the transferor's GST exemption is allocated to the trust (or transfer), the $40 \%$ rate is multiplied by the trust's (or transfer's) "inclusion ratio" (described below) to produce the "applicable rate" [IRC 2641]. This rate is then applied to the taxable amount of the generation-skipping transfer to determine the GST tax on that transfer (IRC 2602). If the transfer is a taxable distribution or termination, the taxable amount includes the GST tax itself - like the estate tax, the GST tax is tax inclusive [IRC 2621(b) and 2622]. On the other hand, direct skips, like the giff tax, are tax exclusive [IRC 2623].
B. The GST exemption is equal to the estate tax exemption beginning in 2004. The trust's (or transfer's) inclusion ratio is one minus the "applicable fraction". The numerator of the applicable fraction is the amount of GST exemption allocated to the trust (or transfer) and the denominator is the value of the property transferred, net of transfer taxes thereon [IRC 2641].

1. Allocations of a transferor's GST exemption are normally made on the transferor's timely filed gift or estate tax return reporting the transfer. However, unless that return directs otherwise (or an election out is made on a prior return), unused (that is, not previously allocated) GST exemption is automatically allocated: (i) to lifetime direct skips; (ii) to "indirect skips" to GST trusts; (iii) after death, to direct skips occurring at decedent's death and then to trusts of which he is the transferor and from which taxable distributions or terminations might occur [IRC 2632(b) and (c)]. GST exemption may be retroactively allocated to certain trusts in the case of an unusual order of deaths [IRC 2632(d)].
2. "ETIP period"-with two exceptions [see Treas. Reg. §§26.2632-1 (c)(2)(ii)(A) and (B)], GST exemption is not allocable to any transfer as long as the transferred property would be includable except under §2035) in the transferor's or transferor's spouse's estate if either were to die. The end of such estate tax inclusion period becomes the transfer and valuation date for exemption allocation purposes [IRC 2642(f)].
C. Annual exclusion gifts to an individual skip person have a zero inclusion ratio for GST tax purposes. This rule applies to annual exclusion gifts to a skip person trust only if its assets are exclusively for, and will be includable in the gross estate of, the trust beneficiary [IRC 2642(c)].
D. "Reverse QTIP election"-the creator of a QTIP trust (or the creator's executor) may elect under IRC 2652(a)(3) to continue to be treated as the transferor of that trust after the creator's spouse's death.
E. In the case of a GST nonexempt trust, subjecting its assets to the gift and/or estate tax of a person (such as the child of the grantor who is that trust's primary beneficiary) will, on distribution (or the child's death), change the "transferor" of such assets to that child. This will have the effect of eliminating from GST tax what would otherwise have been a taxable termination on the child's death to the child's children. This is so because the determination as to whether an event is a GST is made by reference to the most recent transfer subject to the estate or gift tax - which establishes the identity of the transferor and thus the identity of the skip and non-skip persons [Treas. Reg. §26.2611-1].
F. Tuition and medical expense direct payments [under IRC 2503(e)] are exempt from the GST tax [IRC 2642(c)(3)]. In addition, transfers from a trust which transfers would be exempt from gift tax under IRC 2503(e) if made by an individual are exempt from GST tax [IRC 2611(b)].
G. Under the predeceased child exemption, if an individual who is a descendant of a parent of transferor (or of a transferor's spouse or former spouse) dies before his or her parent, his or her issue will all move up one generation; provided, in the case of an individual who is not a lineal descendant of the transferor, that the transferor has no lineal descendants at the time of the transfer [IRC 2651(e)].
H. Descendants who survive 90 days or less will be treated as having predeceased the transferor if either the governing instrument or local law so provides [Treas. Reg. §26.2651-1(a)(2)(iii)].

QUALIFIED PLAN ROLLOVERS

All or part of any eligible rollover distribution to a participant (or surviving spouse) may be rolled over within 60 days to an IRA (or, in the case of the participant, to another plan). An eligible rollover distribution is any otherwise taxable plan distribution except that a minimum required distribution amount, one of a series of equal periodic payments (over a life or life expectancy or for a period of 10 years or more), a hardship distribution, or qualified disaster-relief distribution may not be included in a rollover [IRC 402(c)(4)].
Note-Unless a direct trustee-to-trustee transfer is made (a "direct rollover"), notwithstanding the rollover of such distribution, $\mathbf{2 0 \%}$ of the distribution is withheld for income tax purposes [IRC 3405(c)(1)].

Beginning in 2010 (or in 2007-2009 but only if the distributing plan specifically provides for a direct rollover of a "deemed" eligible rollover distribution to a nonspouse beneficiary's inherited IRA), a direct rollover may be made on or before the end of the calendar year following the participant's death to an inherited IRA for a nonspouse beneficiary from which MRDs may be made over the beneficiary's single life expectancy [IRC 402(c)(11), 401(a)(31)].

FEDERAL SPOUSAL RIGHTS IN QUALIFIED RETIREMENT PLANS

A participant's surviving spouse is entitled to a qualified preretirement survivor annuity ("QPSA") or qualified joint and survivor annuity ("QJSA"), depending on whether the participant died before or after the "annuity starting date" [that is, the first day of the first period for which an amount is payable as an annuity (regardless of when or whether payment is actually made) or, in the case of benefits not payable in the form of an annuity, the date on which all events have occurred which entitle the participant to the benefit]. Each benefit must be at least $50 \%$ of the participant's benefit.
Waivers and consents-the QPSA or QJSA form of benefit may be waived by the participant if his/her spouse consents (one is not a "spouse" until after the marriage). A spousal consent to a QPSA or QJSA waiver may be specific (requiring a new spousal consent if the participant changes the named beneficiary and/or, in the case of a QJSA, the form of benefit) or general (in which case the participant may change beneficiaries or benefit form without further spousal consent). A spousal consent may be revocable or irrevocable. A QPSA waiver may only be made on or after the participant's attainment of age 35. A QJSA waiver may only be made within 180 days prior to the annuity starting date.
Exempt plans-a profit-sharing or stock bonus plan is exempt from the above rules if (i) benefits are not paid in annuity form, (ii) $100 \%$ of the death benefits are payable to the spouse unless the spouse consents (either specifically or generally) to the designation of another death benefit beneficiary, and (iii) the plan is not a transferee of assets from a plan subject to the QPSA/QJSA rules. A spouse has no rights as to any distributions from an exempt profit sharing or stock bonus plan that are made during the participant's lifetime.

QUALIFIED PLAN MINIMUM DISTRIBUTION RULES

The minimum required distribution ("MRD") rules apply to all qualified retirement plans, IRC 403(b) annuities, and certain governmental and tax exempt employees plans ("plans") and to non-Roth IRAs - see IRC 401(a)(9), 403(b)(10), 408(a)(6), 457(d)(2). The penalty for failure to take a required distribution is $50 \%$ of the MRD deficiency - that is $50 \%$ of any amount not timely distributed [IRC 4974].
Life expectancy tables - life expectancies (expressed in years) are determined under Reg. $\S 1.401$ (a)(9)-9 tables, the Uniform Lifetime Table (based on the joint life expectancy of a participant and a person exactly 10 years younger), the Joint and Last Survivor Table, and the Single Life Table.

DURING PARTICIPANT'S LIFETIME

Required beginning date ("RBD") - distributions must begin not later than the RBD, which is generally April 1 of the year after the year in which the participant reaches age 701/2. Plans may permit or require active employees (other than $5 \%$ owners) to defer the RBD until April 1 of the year after retirement. The first "distribution calendar year" is the calendar year prior to that in which the RBD occurs.
Minimum distribution amount - the MRD amount for each distribution calendar year through and including the year of the participant's death will be determined using the Uniform Lifetime Table, except if the spouse is the "sole" beneficiary designated for the distribution calendar year and is more than 10 years younger than the participant, in which case the Joint and Last Survivor Table is used. In each case, the prior yearend account balance is divided by the distribution period years shown on the applicable table for the age (or ages) attained that year. If the first distribution is made in the year of the RBD, that distribution is no longer considered to reduce the account balance used to determine the MRD for the second distribution calendar year.

AFTER PARTICIPANT'S DEATH

Designated Beneficiary ("DB") - DBs are those individuals designated under the plan as of the participant's death who remain beneficiaries on September 30 of the year following the year of the participant's death (the "determination date"), giving effect to intervening post-death beneficiary disclaimers or beneficiary cash outs. If a named beneficiary dies prior to the determination date, that beneficiary will nonetheless be considered to be a DB. If there is more than one DB, the rules are applied based on the DB having the shortest life expectancy, except where separate accounts are established by $12 / 31$ of the year following the year of death. Naming a charity or the employee's estate as the beneficiary results in the plan (or IRA) having no DB.

If death is after the RBD - beginning with the distribution calendar year following the year of the participant's death (the first distribution calendar year):
A. If there is no DB - the annual MRD amount equals the prior yearend account balance divided by the Single Life Table years of life expectancy shown for the age the participant had attained (or would have attained) in the year of death reduced by one for each distribution calendar year after the year of death.
B. If spouse is not sole DB - the annual MRD amount equals the lesser of (1) the prior yearend account balance divided by the Single Life Table years of life expectancy shown for the age attained by the DB in the first distribution calendar year reduced by 1 for each subsequent distribution calendar year or (2) the amount determined under the preceding paragraph as if there were no DB.
C. If spouse is sole DB - assuming no spousal rollover, the annual MRD amount through and including the spouse's year of death equals the prior yearend account balance divided by the Single Life Table years of life expectancy for the age the spouse has attained (or would have attained) in that distribution calendar year. The annual MRD amount beginning with the distribution calendar year following the year of the spouse's death equals the prior yearend account balance divided by the Single Life Table life expectancy for the age the spouse had attained (or would have attained) in the year of the spouse's death reduced by 1 for each distribution calendar year after the year of death.

On a pre-RBD death -

A. If there is no DB - distribution must be completed by the end of the fifth year after the year of death (in the first four years, no distributions are required).
B. If there is a DB - unless the plan or IRA mandates the five-year rule -

1. If spouse is not sole DB - beginning with the distribution calendar year following the year of the participant's death, the annual MRD amount equals the prior yearend account balance divided by the Single Life Table years of life expectancy for the age attained by the DB in the distribution calendar year following the participant's death reduced by 1 for each subsequent distribution calendar year.
2. If spouse is sole DB - assuming no spousal rollover, beginning with the distribution calendar year following the year of the participant's death (or the year in which the participant would have attained age 701/2, if later) through and including the year of the spouse's death, the annual MRD amount equals the prior yearend account balance divided by the Single Life Table years of life expectancy for the age the spouse has attained (or would have attained) in that distribution calendar year. If a surviving spouse sole beneficiary dies after the determination date but before MRDs are required to commence, the spouse is treated as the participant for applying the MRD rules to distribution calendar years after the spouse's year of death. Otherwise, MRDs after the spouse's year of death are determined in the manner described above in the "If death is after the RBD - If spouse is sole DB" section.
3. Spousal Rollover - if: (1) a surviving spouse rolls a participant's account (or any portion of it) over to the spouse's own IRA or plan account or (2) the spouse is named as beneficiary of an IRA and elects to treat the IRA as the spouse's own IRA, the above rules apply to the surviving spouse as the participant of such plan or IRA.

TRUSTS AS BENEFICIARIES

The beneficiaries of a trust that is named as beneficiary are treated as the participant's beneficiaries under the "look through" rules. Because all trust beneficiaries (both current and potential future beneficiaries) must be taken into account, many trusts will have no DB (that is, an entity may benefit or the oldest beneficiary cannot be identified). Until further IRS guidance, three kinds of trusts appear to assure a DB-(i) a conduit trust (where the trustees must distribute all benefits received to one or more beneficiaries for the life of a beneficiary or until a beneficiary reaches a stated age when the beneficiary will take outright) with the MRD measured by the oldest conduit beneficiary, (ii) a trust that circumscribes beneficial interests such that no one older than the oldest current beneficiary and no nonindividual may benefit, and (iii) a trust that names a current beneficiary, and terminates outright in favor of remainder beneficiaries all of whom are alive on the determinate date. See Treas. Reg. § 1.401(a)(9)-5(c)(3), Example 1. Potential appointees under powers of appointment are likely treated as beneficiaries of a non-conduit trust. The use of benefits to pay post death expenses (including taxes) may have to be restricted (at least after the determination date).

SEPARATE ACCOUNTS

Separate accounts, if "established" by December 31 of the calendar year following the year of the participant's death for beneficiaries who have separate interests under the beneficiary designation as of the participant's death, have separate MRD periods. While current guidance is not clear, it appears that an account is established only when the assets have been segregated. In the case of a single trust that by its terms divides into trusts for separate beneficiaries on the participant's death, a beneficiary designation must name the separate trusts to obtain separate accounts.

APPLICABLE FEDERAL RATE RULES

Applicable Federal Rates ("AFRs") are published monthly (on about the 20th of the month) by the Internal Revenue Service; they provide a guideline interest rate (often with adjustments) for a variety of tax purposes [IRC 1274].

| Term of Debt Instrument |  | AFR to Be Used by Taxpayers |
| :--- | :--- | :--- |
| Not over 3 Years |  | The Short-Term AFR |
| Over 3 Years, not over 9 Years |  | The Mid-Term AFR |
| Over 9 Years | The Long-Term AFR |  |

CHOICE OF INTEREST RATES

Donors making a split-interest charitable gift have the choice to value such gift using $120 \%$ of the Mid-Term AFR for the current month, or for either of the two calendar months preceding the calendar month of the gift, whichever is most favorable. By acting late in a calendar month, when the next month's factor is known (but not yet applicable), a choice of factors from four months can be available.

Use Highest Possible Rate

- Charitable remainder trust
- Charitable gift annuity (for larger deduction)

Use Lowest Possible Rate

- Charitable lead trust
- Charitable gift annuity (for larger tax-exempt portion)
- Gift of remainder interest in farm or personal residence

*The discount rate used to value any annuity, interest for life or a term of years or any remainder or reversionary interest is equal to $120 \%$ of the annual federal mid-term rate under IRC 1274(d)(1), rounded to the nearest $0.2 \%$. However, for split-interest charitable gifts, the rate for the current month or either of the two months preceding the month in which the valuation date falls may be used. [IRC 7520]. Section 7520 became effective May 1, 1989. For transactions occurring in the first four months of 1989, regulations required use of a $10 \%$ interest assumption.
